

This is a sample PDF document for digital signature testing.

It contains one paragraph of text and three placeholder boxes where signature images will be placed.

These boxes are prepared before the digital signature process by the user and system.

